The Ethnic Studies Library presents...

A Book Talk & Signing

LUCHA CORPI

The Triple Banana Split Boy / El niño goloso

Lucha Corpi's poetic prose is combined with Lisa Field's enticing illustrations in this engaging story that will resonate with kids and their parents as they struggle to balance healthy eating habits with the natural desire for sweets.

Lucha Corpi is a poet, novelist, and children's book author. She has written four mystery novels featuring Brown Angel investigations and Gloria Damasco, the first Chicana detective in American literature: Black Widow's Wardrobe, Cactus Blood, Eulogy for a Brown Angel, and Crimson Moon. Her novel Delia's Song takes place during the tumultuous days of the Third World Liberation Strike at UC Berkeley.
