BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Him Mark Lai was born in San Francisco, California on November 1, 1925. Although professionally trained as a mechanical engineer graduate of University of California, Berkeley, he is internationally known as a community activist and historian and highly respected by academic peers who referred to him as the “Dean of Chinese American History.” Early on, Lai joined the Chinese American Democratic Youth League, or Mun Ching, where he met and married Laura Jung. He participated and was a community leader in many organizations, including the Chinese Historical Society of America and the Chinese Culture Foundation. He taught Asian American Studies courses at San Francisco State University, coordinated the In Search of Roots program with Albert Cheng, served as editor of Chinese America: History & Perspectives, participated in numerous conferences relating to Chinese Americans and Chinese overseas, and served as advisor/consultant on projects and publications. Lai was also a prolific writer whose works include Chinese Newspapers in North America, 1854-1975 (1977), co-authored with Karl Lo; Island: Poetry and History of Chinese Immigrants on Angel Island, 1910-1940 (1980), with Judy Yung and Genny Lim; A History Reclaimed: An Annotated Bibliography of Chinese Language Materials on the Chinese of America (1986); From Overseas Chinese to Chinese American: History of Development of Chinese American Society during the Twentieth Century (1992, written in Chinese); and Becoming Chinese American: A History of Communities and Institutions (2004).
