Copyright Warning

The fees outlined herein are payable to the Ethnic Studies Library for permission to publish materials owned by the Ethnic Studies Library. The granting of permission to use material for publication does not absolve the publisher from securing permission from the copyright owners and payment of such additional fees as the copyright owners may require if the Ethnic Studies Library does not own the copyright or if the material is not in the public domain. Users assume responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise from publication of Ethnic Studies Library materials.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

Special Fees

Rates for other uses not listed in this schedule will be quoted upon request. All fees listed are subject to change without notice. Reduced rates are offered to donors needing copies of materials they have previously donated to the Ethnic Studies Library. Special hourly and daily rates for filming and videotaping from the collections will be quoted upon request.

Non-profit eligibility

Non-profit fees are applicable only to those organizations able to prove legal not-for-profit status by providing suitable documentation such as tax-exempt certificates or letters of identification. For-profit corporations, partnerships, private businesses and individuals working for or with non-profit organizations and government agencies on projects or publications sponsored by those organizations may be eligible to receive non-profit rates with suitable letters of identification.

Conditions of Use

The Ethnic Studies Library retains all rights to reproductions of photographs including the right to grant others permission to reproduce the photographs. Additional copies must be purchased from the Ethnic Studies Library. The photographic copy or any facsimile of it may not be reproduced beyond the intended use described in the Pictorial Permission Form.

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to the Ethnic Studies Library, and appropriate fees paid. Permission is limited to the applicant and is not transferable. Permission for use is not granted until all fees are paid.

Request reproductions of materials in the Ethnic Studies Library collection by submitting the Photographic Services Information and Order Form.

Altering the original photographic image beyond standard cropping or resizing requires further discussion with Staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption or label.

The photographic copy may not be used as a dust jacket, an end paper, nor in an advertisement or any commercial or promotional use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce as unbound material unless specifically authorized by this contract.

In authorizing the publication of a photographic copy, the Ethnic Studies Library does not surrender its own right to publish it, or to grant permission to others to do so. All rights are non-exclusive.

Rights are offered for a maximum period of ten years, or for the life of the project. The Ethnic Studies Library does not issue rights in perpetuity.

The Ethnic Studies Library reserves the right to limit the number of photographic copies; to restrict the use of reproduction of rare or valuable material involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge a higher duplication fee than specified. Copies are not supplied to commercial picture agencies except by special arrangement.

The applicant agrees to send the Ethnic Studies Library one complimentary copy of the work containing the reproduction.

Credit Information

The publication must properly credit the Ethnic Studies Library. Credit should appear in close proximity to the image or in a special section devoted to credits. The preferred credit line for Ethnic Studies Library material is:

For material from the Asian American Studies Collections:

Courtesy of the Asian American Studies Collections
Ethnic Studies Library
University of California, Berkeley

For material from the Chicano Studies Collections:
