WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproduction of copyrighted material.
- Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
- This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
- Requests for photoduplication of material will be considered when such duplication can be made without injury to the material, when it is within library policy, and when it is in accordance with donor agreements and copyright restrictions. When allowed, single copies will be provided for the requestor’s reference use only. Further duplication of copies is not permitted.
- In making copies available, the Ethnic Studies Library does not thereby grant permission to reproduce or quote for publication. Requests for permission to publish must be submitted in writing. In addition, when the Ethnic Studies Library does not hold copyright, the requestor must also obtain the permission of the copyright holder. The requestor assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright or publication rights belonging to the author, his or her heirs or assigns.

I make this request in accordance with the provisions of the copyright law and the policies of the Ethnic Studies Library.
